

Joseph DiBenedetto Esq.
Board Member

Joseph DiBenedetto is a criminal defense attorney practicing primarily in the federal and state courts of New York. He began his career in 2001 working with a notable sole practitioner.

Through hard work, determination and repeated extraordinary results in many high profile cases, Joseph DiBenedetto opened his own firm in 2008.

Mr. DiBenedetto has successfully represented numerous individuals charged with a wide array of offenses at both the federal and state level. He has successfully represented fellow attorneys, law enforcement personnel, union officials, medical professionals, accountants and CEOs of major corporations. He has secured the pretrial dismissal of numerous cases at both the federal and state level.

Additionally, his extensive knowledge of the Federal Sentencing Guidelines and state sentencing provisions has benefited numerous clients, earning them significantly reduced sentences.

Joseph DiBenedetto has been the go to source to all major media outlets regarding high profile matters involving local, national and international issues. His expert analysis has been covered in Fox News, Time Magazine, NBC Nightly News, Fox Sports, Star Magazine, ESPN, E! and CNN, amongst others. As a result of his successes and rapid climb within the criminal defense field, Mr. DiBenedetto has been featured in the Italian daily newspaper America Oggi.

Mr. DiBenedetto is a member of the state bars of New York, New Jersey and Washington D.C. He is also a member of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, The Columbian Lawyers Association and The New York State Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers.

Mr. DiBenedetto received his Bachelor of Arts from St. John's University, graduating cum laude. He received his Juris Doctor from St. John's University School of Law in 2001.